

Diesels to the Bruce

Canadian Pacific lines through Orangeville 1970-1995

Ralph Beaumont

Canadian Pacific's beloved lines radiating from Orangeville were quintessential southern Ontario branches. Ralph Beaumont spent many years recording action on the main line from Streetsville through Orangeville to Owen Sound, and rural branches to Elora, Teeswater and Walkerton.

Diesels to the Bruce is Ralph's personal tribute to this now sadly departed railway, published by Credit Valley Railway Company Ltd of Mississauga as part of its 30th anniversary celebrations.

A limited run of 500 copies, available exclusively from Credit Valley Railway Company.
